Writing

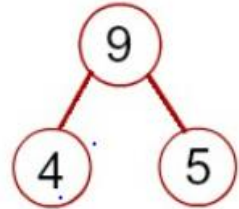

We are continuing to work on the parts of a sentences. Your child will also be learning about common and proper nouns. This week the students will be expected to write a complete sentence with capitals and periods. They will also show the use of nouns in their sentence.

Literature

The students are learning and working to being part of a community. They will be reading non-fiction text this week. Your child will be learning what it takes to be a productive member of a community. As well as what is a community helper and what do they do.

Math

We are starting to get into the idea of combining two numbers. The students will be working number bonds and number sentences.
